TUESDAY, MARCH 7. 1738.

Nº 842.

Votes of the House of Commons of IRELAND.

Febr. 23. Die Februarii, 1737.

HE order of the Day being read, for the second reading of an engross'd Bill from the Lords, entitled, An Act to prevent Inconveniencies that may happen by Privilege of Parliament.

And the Question being put, that the House do proceed upon the said Order.

It was carried in the Affirmative.

Resolved, That this House will, on Monday next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to take the said Bill into Consideration.

Mr. Serjeant Bettlesworth reported, That he had carried to the Lords the Answer of this House to their Lordships Message of the Twenty Second of December last; which Answer is as follows.

My Lords,

THE Commons are surprized, That the Lords should at this Time dispute the hitherto uncontested Right of the Commons, that their Managers should go within the Rail at all Conferences.

The Commons, ever desirous to preserve a good Correspondence with the Lords, are as careful not to infringe the Rights and Privileges of the Lords, as they are determined to maintain their own; wherefore the Commons hope that the Lords, on re-considering this Matter, will not insist on a Point never before drawn into Question, and from which the Commons cannot depart.

The Commons, tho' not disposed to animadvert on Words, cannot pass by unobserved the Stile of your Lordships last Message, in the Words, 'Gentlemen of the House of Commons;' and the extraordinary Expression, 'That the Lords expected, for a considerable Time, the Attendance of the Commons in the Conference Chamber.' The Commons do not attend, they meet the Lords at Conference.

And that their Lordships were pleased to say, they would return an Answer by Messengers of their own.

An engross'd Bill from the Lords, entitled; An Act, That all Proceedings in Courts of Justice within this Kingdom shall be in the English Language, according to Order, was read a second Time, and committed to a Committee of the whole House on Monday next.

and so terrify'd the Ladies that they were for running they knew not where, till they were satisfied what it was, tho' even then a great many Ladies who were near the Door went quite away.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, but eſpecially in the Spring and Fall, it is ſo very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children ſake it without Trouble, a few Drops being uſed, and ſo gentle, that it weakens not the moſt ſolid Parts: For it is a ſafe and eſſential Alterative, to be taken in a leſs Doſe than where Purgings are neceſſary, as Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a ſingular Property well known to the Learned, to be in ſome Cathartic Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longeſt Standing, and attended with the moſt aggravated Circumſtances (a Diſtemper ſo common to Engliſh People, that not one in a thouſand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are ſorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Liſt in all its Forms of appearing, from the ſlighteſt itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmoſt or laſt Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Diſtemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only ſingular effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithſtanding what may be dreamed to the contrary) the Truth of which is witneſſed to daily, by the many Thouſands that have taken this Medicine. It ſo powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that ſcorpulous Caſes are alſo ſpeedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronick Diſeaſes prevented, and a due State of Health ſecured.

It removes all Pain from the Stomach, helps Diſtention, opens Obſtructions, and is peculiarly ſerviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickenſs. 'Tis the beſt Medicine in the World to deſtroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it ſcours away all thoſe roſy, viſcid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is ſo well adapted to all Conſtitutions, that it is deſerv'dly eſteem'd both in City and Country, the moſt general Family Medicine that ever was known to preſerve Health, and hinder no Buſineſs or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to ſell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given, with it are large and full.
